St. Michael's Church, 240 Hemlock Street (Albert & University), Waterloo
Saturday, November 5th

9:00am Refreshments and Morning Prayer
9:30am Dr. Peter Erb on the background to Vatican II
10:30am Seán O'Seasnáin on the historical development of Sacrosanctum Concilium
11:30am Fr. Edward Henhoeffler on Sacrosanctum Concilium and the new Roman Missal
12:30pm Lunch (optional)

The "new" words which have been chosen for our celebration of the liturgy are certainly more faithful to the original Latin texts. More importantly, they will unite us to countless generations of Christians whose faith has been nourished by the biblical word, and have the power to lead us to a deeper union with Christ, the living and eternal word, in whom we live and have our being.

Msgr. Murray Kroetsch, "Choosing the Words for Prayer"
